Title 1
PARENT INVOLVEMENT POLICY

Parent Involvement Policy

Ranchview High School is dedicated to the success of our students. The faculty and staff of Ranchview High School believe that all parents are partners with teachers and other staff in the education of their children. Ranchview High School believes that parent involvement is essential to the success of their children.

The Ranchview High School administration shall work in collaboration with teachers, parents and guardians to actively support the faculty and the parents to enhance parent involvement by:

- € Respecting parents as partners in the education of their children and honoring their role as first and life-long teachers
- € Setting high expectations for excellent customer (student/parent) service
- € Expecting high student achievement for all students
- € Promoting parent involvement in site-based leadership and decision-making
- € Fostering a welcoming and responsive environment for all parents
- € Establishing and promoting communication as a source of trust and understanding between the Ranchview staff and parents

At Ranchview High School, we expect parents/guardians to be involved in their children's learning and education by:
